PEOPLE OF CRAFTLY AGREEMENT

MARCH 2026
GOVERNED BY THE CRAFTLY CONSTITUTION
DHAKA, BANGLADESH

ARTICLE I — PARTIES

This agreement is entered into between the Board of Directors of Craftly, represented by Wasif Abdullah Musa, Chairman of the Board, and the individual signing below, hereafter referred to as the People of Craftly.

ARTICLE II — NATURE OF ENGAGEMENT

The People of Craftly joins Craftly as a founding member of a movement to build Bangladesh's first global technology company. The People of Craftly has read and accepted the Craftly Constitution prior to signing this agreement.

Participation is currently unpaid. However, Craftly recognizes all contribution made under this agreement as work owed compensation. All dues accumulated during this period shall be paid when Craftly generates profit, provided the People of Craftly has fulfilled their obligations under this agreement.

Provided the People of Craftly fulfills their obligations, their position within the organization shall be considered permanent.

ARTICLE III — OBLIGATIONS OF THE PEOPLE OF CRAFTLY

3.1 Chain of Command

The People of Craftly shall operate within the organizational hierarchy assigned to them. Instructions from direct commanders shall be followed promptly and professionally. Disagreements shall be raised through proper internal channels and shall never be bypassed or escalated publicly.

3.2 Performance

The People of Craftly shall complete assigned tasks within agreed timelines and to a standard that reflects genuine commitment to the mission. Where completion is not possible, the People of Craftly shall communicate proactively to their direct commander before the deadline passes, with clear and honest reasoning.

3.3 Public Conduct

The People of Craftly shall represent Craftly with integrity at all times, in public and in private. The People of Craftly shall not spread misinformation about Craftly, its members or its mission. Where false information exists publicly, the People of Craftly shall correct it calmly and factually.

3.4 Work Environment

The People of Craftly shall actively maintain a respectful, encouraging and disciplined environment across all Craftly spaces including digital platforms, group channels and any physical gatherings. Every member of this movement deserves to feel safe, valued and respected. Harassment, intimidation or deliberate disrespect toward any member is a serious breach of this agreement.

3.5 Mutual Growth

The People of Craftly shall contribute to the growth of their teammates by sharing knowledge, offering assistance and creating conditions where every member can improve. This movement advances when its people advance together.

3.6 Honest Communication

The People of Craftly shall report organizational problems, conflicts or concerns through the official feedback channel provided by Craftly. Awareness of a problem without reporting it is a failure of responsibility to the mission and to fellow members.

3.7 Mission Protection

The People of Craftly commits to protecting the soul of this mission as defined in the Craftly Constitution. This commitment does not end with the departure of any individual member or leader, including the Chairman. The mission is bigger than any one person.

ARTICLE IV — OBLIGATIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors commits the following toward every People of Craftly.

Every member shall be treated with dignity and respect regardless of their position in the hierarchy. Every member's contribution shall be permanently recognized as part of Craftly's founding story. All dues accumulated during the unpaid period shall be paid when Craftly generates profit, for every member who has fulfilled their obligations. Every member shall have access to a confidential channel to raise concerns directly to the Chairman. No member shall ever be publicly humiliated for matters handled through internal process. The Board commits to making decisions that serve the mission and the people building it, not personal interest.

ARTICLE V — PERFORMANCE AND REMOVAL

Craftly is committed to the growth of every member and approaches performance matters with fairness and patience.

Where performance falls below expectation, the direct commander shall first address the matter through a private and respectful conversation. If performance does not improve within a reasonable period without valid reason, the matter shall be escalated through the chain of command toward the Chairman.

If the Board of Directors determines that a member has consistently failed to meet performance expectations without valid reason, the Board reserves the right to remove that member from their position. This decision shall be made with full fairness, without personal bias and with genuine consideration of the member's circumstances.

Serious breaches including harassment of members, deliberate public damage to Craftly's reputation or willful violation of the chain of command may result in immediate removal without prior warning at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI — VOLUNTARY EXIT

The People of Craftly may exit this agreement at any time without penalty. Upon exit, the member agrees to inform their direct commander with reasonable notice, formally hand over any outstanding responsibilities to ensure continuity and maintain confidentiality regarding internal organizational matters after departure.

Dues accumulated prior to exit shall remain owed by Craftly and shall be settled when the company generates profit, provided the member fulfilled their obligations during their time of service.

ARTICLE VII — ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By signing below, the People of Craftly confirms the following.

I have read the Craftly Constitution in full and accept it as the soul of this organization. I understand the nature of my engagement and my obligations under this agreement. I understand that my contribution is recognized as deferred compensation and that all dues shall be paid when Craftly generates profit. I understand that my position shall be considered permanent provided I fulfill my obligations. I understand that consistent failure to meet performance expectations without valid reason may result in removal by decision of the Board of Directors. I commit to fulfilling my responsibilities with sincerity, discipline and integrity for as long as I am a member of this movement.

Bangladesh never produced a tech giant. I am signing this document because I intend to help change that history.

Mahadi Islam Alif
People of Craftly

Phone Number: [redacted]

Wasif Abdullah Musa
Chairman, Board of Directors